Sub: Starred Question No. 1221,
Proposed to be put in the L.C.
by Shri R.N. Mandlik, M.L.C.

Ref: G.E., P. & S.D., No. S. 25/2/66-Q-D, dated the 21.2.51.

2. So far as this Deptt. is concerned, the necy, information in con. with the starred Question No. 1221, proposed to be put in the L.C. by Shri R.N. Mandlik, L.C., is as given below:-

Clause (b) of the Question. — Yes.

(c) Cluse/of the Question. — The Number of gazetted officers dismissed was two. they were--

(1) Shri L.M. Damany, B.Sc. (Lond)., G.I.E.E., A.M.I.E., Dy. Engr. & Asstt. El. Inspector, El. Circle, Bombay.

(2) Shri M.M. Vyas, B.E., Dy. Engr. and Asstt. to the P.H.E. to Govt., Poona.

Clause (d) of the Question. :

(a) Shri Damany was dismissed from Govt. service for the charge of acceptance of illegal gratification of Rs. 400/- from the Manager of Jawhar Talkies, Mulund.

(b) Shri Vyas was dismissed as the charge of his being engaged in private trade while in Govt. service without the permission of Govt. was proved against him.

3. There was another case of Shri R.B. Chitnis, B.E.(Mechl.) A.M.I. Mech. E. (Lond), A.M.I.E. (Ind.), Dy. Engr. in charge of Govt. workshop at Dapuri, Poona He was discharged (not Dismissed) from Govt. service in Sept. 1949. In case his name is to be included in the information regd to above, the necy. particulars about him are furnished below:-

Shri Chitnis was discharged from Govt. service on the following,,,,,

following two charges:-

(i) that he got manufactured under his orders at the Dapuri Workshop, through the agency of Govt. labourers articles required for use in his newly constructed bungalow named "Suwas" without following the prescribed procedure of booking the order with the workshop and opening the work order in his name; and

(ii) that he misappropriated the Govt. materials by utilising the same in the construction of the said bungalow "Suwas" or by other wise disposing them of

Though the value of the materials misappropriated by Shri Chitnis was comparatively small, Govt. had considered that his misconduct was of a serious character and must have been the result of habit and therefore he was discharged from Govt. service in consultation with the Bombay P.S.C.
